

- 1- Romans 10:4 says: 'Jesus is the end of the Law.' Explain in your own words why the Law remains valid today in terms of its revelatory and regulatory aspects.

- 2- Today, the essence of the law can be found in the New Testament through the Ten Commandments. How do you obey them, and what motivates you to do so?

- 3- God established seven annual feasts in Israel. Name and briefly explain each of them.

- 4- Building on the festivals, how many were celebrated in the first semester, and which ones? And how many were celebrated in the second semester?

- 5- Which of the feasts have already been fulfilled, and which ones haven't, in terms of their spiritual prophetic aspect?

- 6- Correlate the parties:

Easter:	1	<input type="checkbox"/>	Jesus' reign on earth for 1000 years
Unleavened bread:	2	<input type="checkbox"/>	Church beginning with the coming of the Holy Spirit
First fruits:	3	<input type="checkbox"/>	Rapture of the Church
Pentecost:	4	<input type="checkbox"/>	Israel's recognition of Jesus as the Messiah
Trumpets:	5	<input type="checkbox"/>	Freedom from the bondage of sin
Atonement:	6	<input type="checkbox"/>	Resurrection of Jesus
Tabernacle:	7	<input type="checkbox"/>	Possibility of living without sin

- 7- What does 'kipur' mean in the context of the removal of sin through the blood of goats and bulls in the OT?
