

1. What must we do first to understand the passage in Genesis 6:1–12?
2. Based on this passage, can we conclude that the sons of God are the descendants of Seth, and the daughters of men are the descendants of Cain?
3. Who are the women mentioned in this text?
4. Who in the Old Testament can be called a son of God? Quote a relevant Bible verse.
5. What is the biblical standard for someone to be called a son of God?
6. Why are we, as people who have accepted Jesus as our Savior, be called sons of God? Comment on this and quote relevant Bible verses.
7. Having defined the sons of God and the daughters of men in Genesis 6:1–12, what can we conclude was so serious that God decreed the judgment of the Flood?
8. Can angels appear to humans? Quote some relevant Bible passages.